Reason for Waiver Request:

I am a Maryland resident and a member of the U.S. Armed Forces stationed outside of Maryland. (complete section B)

Section B - To be completed by Maryland members of the U.S. Armed Forces assigned out of state

I certify that I am a member of the U.S. Armed Forces officially assigned to duty at the following military base

Name/Location of Base	Military Address	Maryland Tag #
-----------------------	------------------	----------------

I request an inspection waiver due to the above information. Upon returning to Maryland, I will have the vehicle inspected at an authorized Maryland safety inspection station.

Signature of Serviceman Printed Name Date

The above named service member is assigned to official duty at the above named military base.

Signature of Commanding Officer (rank) Printed Name Date

Section C - To be completed by applicants for transportation to a Maryland State inspection station

Means by which to transport my vehicle to an authorized Maryland inspection station are unavailable. I understand that one 30 day temporary registration will be issued for the purpose of transporting the vehicle to and from an inspection station or weigh station or both.

Reminder: This vehicle must pass a MD safety inspection within 30 days. You must either submit the inspection certificate to the MVA (unless electronically submitted by the inspection station); or return the license plates. Failure to comply will result in the flagging of the registration and a tag pickup order placed against the vehicle.
