

Maryland Connected & Automated Vehicles Working Group

Location: 991 Corporate Blvd, Linthicum MD 21090

Tuesday, May 1, 2018 11:00 AM to 4:00 PM

Agenda

- 1:00 PM Members to Introduce themselves and mention interests in CAV
- 1:15 PM MDOT News: Transportation Business Units - Brief Status Update:
The Secretary's Office (TSO)
Motor Vehicle Administration (MVA)
Maryland Transportation Authority (MDTA)
State Highway Administration (SHA)
Maryland Transit Administration (MTA)
Maryland Aviation Administration (MAA)
Maryland Port Administration (MPA)
Update on collaboration with US Army Test and Evaluation Command at APG (1 of 10 designated CAV Proving Grounds) (MDTA)
- 1:45 PM Johns Hopkins Research, CAV Interface of Design for Low Vision Drivers
Allen Eghrari, MD, Johns Hopkins Medical Institute
- 2:15 PM Jurisdictional Guidelines for the Safe Testing and Deployment of Highly Automated Vehicles
Catherine Curtis, American Association of Motor Vehicle Administrators (AAMVA)
- 2:45 PM CAV Issues and Considerations for Vehicle Insurance
Maryland Insurance Administration – Regulator's Perspective
Jason Jackson, Assistant Chief Investigator, Property & Casualty
Nationwide Insurance – Business Perspective
David Braun, Vice President of P&C Shared Operations
- 3:40 PM Preview of Maryland Test Site Map
- 3:50 PM Launch of Maryland Transportation Institute -- Research and education institute, focusing on key challenges to include connected and automated vehicles
- 3:55 PM Next Steps